INVITATION FOR DIAMOND JUBILEE FUNCTION

Ahmedabad Andhra Mahasabha (AAMS) invites you all to the Diamond Jubilee celebrations on 4th and 5th February 2023 at TTD Kalyanamandapam, Sri Balaji Temple Complex, S G Highway, Ahmedabad. AAMS is a socio-cultural organization, established in 1946 by Telugu people living in Ahmedabad, to preserve and develop culture, bringing people together and service to the society. In this challenging journey of 75 years, AAMS successfully realized its goals and showcased great achievements with the excellent commitment and contribution of its enthusiastic members. AAMS members made eminent contributions to the development of Gujarat and India through their professions.

Thanks to innovative and dynamic leadership, AAMS has been vibrant, adapted to the changing conditions and also teamed up with the like minded organizations and individuals and could reach great heights. In these 75 years of astounding journey, almost four generations got groomed in the serene, enterprising and inspiring culture of Ahmedabad and contributed significantly to the world.

AAMS conducted many programs, festivals, events, trainings, picnics and competitions to preserve culture and also to develop artists in music, dance, drama, painting, folk arts, mimicry etc. Festivals like Ganesh Chaturdhi, Dusshera, Sankranti, Ugadi and Ramnavami are regularly organized with great enthusiasm. Some of the special cultural programmes organized by AAMS are 250th Thyagaraja Jayanti, Annamacharya Jayanti, Kankaria carnival, welcome rally for Japan prime minister and world Telugu festival.

AAMS organized Sri Venkateswara Vaibhavam, donated one room at Tirumala and facilitated tours to Tirupati. AAMS played key role in the construction of Sri Venkateswara Swamy temple at Ahmedabad and formation of a trust to look after it. This temple met spiritual and cultural needs of devotees, helped spreading of rich sanathana dharma and personality development among many youngsters. This pious temple is known as a jewel of Indian arts and culture in Ahmedabad and innumerable devotees got benefitted by praying and seeking God's blessings. Members of AAMS contribute extensively in social service activities like blood donation, conducting medical camps, annadanam and distribution of books, blankets, utensils, cloths and ration to poor as "Service to needy is Service to God". Governor of Gujarat and Redcross felicitated AAMS for blood donation. AAMS made another unique contribution by initiating, coordinating and establishing national level organization "Rastretara Telugu Samakhya" (RTS), which is now an important forum for the preservation and development of telugu language and culture. More than 500 artists from various parts of India participated in the inaugural meeting of RTS, hosted by AAMS.

AAMS contributed in conducting online cultural programmes, during Covid pandemic using Zoom. Some of the seniors of AAMS have been recognized for their excellence in their professions and service to arts and culture. AAMS was recently felicitated by Potti Sriramulu Telugu university with prestigious “Mandali Venkata Krishna Rao Annual Cultural Award” for its contributions in protection of Telugu culture and language.

Diamond Jubilee Programme of AAMS includes convention of all contributors/members, review of achievements, felicitation of great contributors, awards to local talent, cultural programs and discussions on future plans. AAMS plans to bring out Audio/ video Album and Souvenir and institute Awards to commemorate the Diamond Jubilee. AAMS humbly requests all members and well-wishers to participate, send various articles on their experiences, audio/video clips, photos, advertisements, donations and sponsorships for the same and make the programme a grand success.

Event Sponsorship: Individuals/families/companies may kindly sponsor full or part of the event cost. Their contribution will be suitably displayed and acknowledged during the programme, in the album and in the souvenir.
