MESSAGE

His Excellency the Governor of Gujarat sends warm greetings to the organisers and participants of Andhra Cultural festival to be organised on the happy occasion of the completion of forty years of existence of Ahmedabad Andhra Mahasabha.

People of Andhra who are living outside Andhra Pradesh have enriched the social and cultural life of the people with whom they have come in contact. But they have taken care to maintain links with their language, traditional values and culture remain as strong as ever. Through such festivals, the Ahmedabad Andhra Mahasabha will certainly provide an opportunity to people to understand the rich traditions of Andhra.

TELEX MESSAGE

General K. V. Krishna Rao, PVSM (Retd.) has conveyed his warm greetings on the completion of Forty years of existence of Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha and His best wishes for a successful "ANDHRA CULTURAL FESTIVAL" scheduled to be held on March 5 and 6, 1994.

Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha

Foreword

M. Hanumantha Rao
President

Around 50,000 Andhras are residing in Ahmedabad today. Andhras have been contributing to the economic and industrial growth of Gujarat for many years. Although they have become the part and parcel of the social and economic life of Gujarat, they have been maintaining their identity by preserving their cultural background.

Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha has been providing the necessary impetus to them for preserving their cultural identity over the last many generations, while being a part of social milieu of Gujarat.

As a part of this attempt, today, Andhra Maha Sabha is organising the Andhra Cultural festival with the courtesy of the Andhra Pradesh Government, for which the Sabha is always grateful to Andhra Pradesh Govt. I am sure such festivals would go a long way to project the cultural heritage of Andhras to the people of Gujarat, leading to, in our own humble way, the cultural integration of the country.

I am sure that many more such cultural festivals would be organised by Sabha in due course of time.

AHMEDABAD ANDHRA MAHA SABHA - A LOOK INTO HISTORY

P.V.P.C. Prasad

Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha is engaged for the last five decades in cultural field. Over the period it changes its shape, size and objectives, through the great work done by its organisers from time to time. It is interesting to look into the history of the sabha which started as a feeble plant and now grown into a Maha Vriksha

Though exact date of its birth could not be traces back, AAMS has its origin in the late forties. An idea cropped up in 1945, during the "IPTOH" conference held in Ahmedabad under the ongoing Communist moment in India. Through a well developed strategy, AAMS got started at a small but a planned function with 6 at the time of Muhurt, naming the association as Ahmedabad Andhra Sangham. What a foresight it is! Sri V.L.N. Murthy, Chief Officer in Indian Telegraph Office is made as the founder secretary. Sri Manikyala Rao, a leader in Communist party in the mill employs dominated area (Rakhial) is nominated as Joint Secretary. It is worth mentioning here that sri. M. Satranarayana who has remained as the Secretary for about a decade is being felicitated in the Andhra Cultural to be held.

Slowly the association grew with interested personalities like Sri. Venkata Rao, Sri Durgaiyah, Sri Tallam Rama Rao, Sri K.S. Madhava Rao succeeding the above officer bearers. Association got strengthened in the early 60's with about 100 members and its meeting held at regular intervals. In the late 60's Association is renamed as Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha

Meanwhile, Ahmedabad Andhrates under the steward leadership of Sri. M. Satyanarayana formed one more association called Andhra Vidyalaya Sangham in 1955 to concentrate mainly for imparting Telugu Medium education. A school is established in Rakhial area. Several Telugu eminent personalities like Sri. Neelam Sanjeeva Reddy, Sri Sanjeevaiah, Sri. V.V. Giri, Sri Mehdi Nawaz Jung (then Governor of Gujarat) visited the school. Both the associations maintained cordial relations with Vidyalaya Sangham concentrated on education and Sabha concentrated in the cultural promotion.

AAMS got stabilized over the first 2 1/2 decades as an unregistered body. Time has arisen to make it a registered body. Ultimately it got registered on 24th February, 1974 under the presidentship of Sri G.M. Rama Rao and the Secretary ship of Sri Nemani. Elections are held on a regular basis in the annual general body meetings. As ups and downs are the natural features of any association, National, local and its own fervor have their impact on the activities of AAMS being undertaken from time to time. However, the resolve of its members continues. The membership stabilised around 300 at present.

Ahmedabad Andhra Maha Sabha is an association of "Pravasandhras". Many of its members are having transferable jobs. They take interest in the activities and bring new life in the association. Sabha faces lack of experienced organisers form time to time due to the transferable jobs of its organisers. Sabha also expanded its activities through an establishment of its ladies wing of 02.04.1992.

Irrespective of its shortcomings, Sabha is moving ahead. It is not wrong if we say that there is no eminent artist who is promoting the Andhra culture and not visited the Sabha atleast once. Due priority is given to all cultural activities and particularly the rare arts of Andhra. Sabha also arranges local programmes for the multi lingual Ahmedabad is.

No doubt, AAMS is achieving its best from time to time. The activities undertaken apart form its cultural programmes needs concentration from its cultural programmes needs concentration from a single place for the sake of continuity. Sabha could not acquire any premises irrespective of the best efforts by our members. Let us hope that the coming "Bhava" new year will provide new office to begin with.

Initial history of Sabha is traced form the talk with Sri M. Satyanarayana, founder Secretary.

AHMEDABAD ANDHRA MAHA SABHA
- LADIES WING

MANURADHA

Ladies wing of AAMS was formally, re-inaugurated on 2-4-1992 i.e on the Telugu new year day "UGADI" of Angirasa year, with active involvement of 15 members, But, nevertheless it spurred up lot of activity with in a few days of its formation. The basic aim of the wing is to preserve the cultural heritage, particularly through celebration of festivals in a traditional way, to organize the events related to women and children apart from giving a helping hand to the organisation.

Long forgotten Sharavana Sukra-Varams, Bhogi, Dasara Bommala koluvus were celebrated with in the limited constraints. All programmes inspired others to join and celebrate on a larger scale. Thus, Fancy dress competition, drawing competition were held for children solely arranged and conducted by our Ladies wing.

Even though, it is an occasion to put this on record with pride, a lot more needs to be done. Resource constraints apart, more active participation of ladies is required. So far the activity has been only amongst few members but we must attempt to organize functions to attract local Gujarati Ladies be able to present to them, the uniqueness of our own festivals and our cultural heritage.

We look forward to that day!.

Behind every successful boy. . . .

— SINDHU V. RAO.

The hall resounded with thunderous applause. Apratim had come out with flying colours in the board exams and kept the flat of the school flying high. His Alma Mater, proud to have an illustrious student on its rolls, naturally felicitated him. So far so good. It was the next few minutes which were an anticlimax.

As usual he was asked to say a few words. How many times had we read of students giving interviews to the print and visual media attributing their success to parents, teachers, guides tutitions etc. With bated breath I waited for the magic words that his parents Ahem ! that includes me too were the inspiration and force in leading him to this juncture. Slowly he got up, adjusted his shirt, held the mike and clearing his throat, started spaking.

After the customary address, came the much awaited part of the speech He said " I owe my success among others to 3 people. In fact these are the 3 prime guiding angle on my path to succss.

The first is my neighbour. Only a wall separates our houses. A devout pandit. every morning, winter or rain or Summer, he is up before the cock and chants Gayatri and other mantras so loudly thatt he musical alarm is put to shame.

The alarm clock only a mechanical contraption might have failed me once or twice but not my neighbour. With sleep being a distant dream with the rhythmic chanting ringing in my ears, I would get up sometime cursing and sometimes thanking him and get down to my books but not before stuffing my ears with cotton and bolting the doors! But for him I would not have been such a habitual early riser. Does he not deserve to be a reason for my success?

By nature I am easy going and don't take things seriously especially "Father Time." More often than not it would be a losing race against the clock as I got ready for school. Panic stricken, I would run hither and thither on the road desperate for a footing in a crowded bus which would take me to school in time to pant rhythmically with the ringing bell. But with little hope. Here steps in the second factor of my success, my neighbour staying in the opposite society. He would start for office at about the same time as me and my school was on the way to his office. Seeing my sorry plight, he would give me a lift regularly. In course of time he would even wait for me to race down the steps to jump on to the pillion. But for him, I would have spent more time outside the class than inside and today I would have been in the audience with you and not on the dias. Thank you uncle.

The third person who richly deserves a share in my success is the attender of my school. Absent mindedness is another quality which I can do without. So often would I forget my books in school that if Babubhai, our attender, had not kept them safely in the lost properly basket I would have spent hours, days and months only copying notes over and over again. My sincere thanks to him.

What I have said does not belittle the role played by my parents and teachers and well wishers. But they did it knowingly and consciously with a particular goal or aim or motive whereas the people I mentioned above have done it unknowingly. They are the unique factors of my success. I hope you appreciate and agree with my feelings. He sat down and the claps now were more thunderous than before and the happiest person in the gathering was you guessed it right—Babubhai! And me? I was proud to have a son who had been frank enough to call a spade a spade.
